

BEN-Africa 17TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Ethics, governance and leadership as drivers for African growth

8-9 NOVEMBER 2018 ♦ RADISSON BLU HOTEL, MAPUTO, MOZAMBIQUE

The Business Ethics Network of Africa (BEN-Africa) presents our 17th Annual Conference. Prominent scholars, business people and ethics officers from across the continent will discuss the challenges and opportunities to instilling ethics and good governance as drivers for growth and sustainability in Africa.

Join us for an exciting programme to further grow your understanding of this demanding topic.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Focusing on the interdependency of ethics, governance, sustainability and organisational growth
 - Unpacking the imperative for leaders to be transparent and accountable
 - Exploring on whistle-blowing from an African perspective
 - Sharing practical advice from experienced ethics and governance practitioners
 - Learning from presentations by scholars on the conference topic and related themes
 - Networking with like-minded people
- Also: Announcement of and presentation by the recipient of our esteemed Order of the Baobab

ACCOMODATION

Qualify for a special discounted rate if you book accommodation at the Radisson Blu Hotel for the conference. A promotional code to access this special rate will be provided to you on completion of your registration.

DRAFT PROGRAM

Ethics, governance and leadership as driver for African growth

DAY 1: THURSDAY, 8 NOVEMBER 2018

Day Chair: Dr Yvonne Katambo

07:30 Registration and refreshments

08:30 Opening and welcome

09:00 Keynote address: Agostinho Vuma (President, Commission of the Confederation of Economic Associations of Mozambique)

09:45 Address: TBC

10:30 REFRESHMENTS

11:00 Panel discussion: Increasing transparency and accountability in stakeholder groups to drive growth
Joe Ching'ani, Chairperson of the Multi Stakeholder Group (MSG), Construction Sector Transparency (CoST), Malawi
Prof Pedro Maciel Baltazar, Chairman of AEMSP, Member of the Mozambican Advisory Labour Committee, President of Labour and Social Department at CTA
Tony Macamo, Board of Standard Bank, BAT and IoDMz

12:15 Sponsor

12:45 LUNCH AND NETWORKING

13:30 Speed session

15:30 Parallel track session 1

Parallel track session 2

Academic paper presentation

Academic paper presentation

15:00 REFRESHMENTS

Parallel track session 3

Parallel track session 4

Academic paper presentation

Academic paper presentation

16:15 End of Day 1

Ethics, governance and leadership as driver for African growth

DAY 2: Friday, 9 November 2018

Day Chair: Ernesto Macuacua

08:00 Breakfast event: Order of the Baobab

08:30 Welcome: Jovita Matos Fazenda

08:45 Handing over of Order of the Baobab: Liezl Groenewald (President, BEN-Africa)

09:00 Address: Recipient of the Order of the Baobab

10:00 REFRESHMENTS

10:30 Panel discussion: Whistle-blowing as an element of business sustainability (Prof Deon Rossouw, CEO, The Ethics Institute)
Julio Andrade, PhD candidate – The case for whistle-blowing against the backdrop of business sustainability
Bianca Goodson The whistle-blower's perspective (Whistle-blower on Trillian Management)

11:30 Embarking on an ethics and governance journey – where to start?
Simião Paibe, Country Head HR Olam Mozambique Lda

12:00 Implementing Ethics and Compliance Programmes on the continent – advice from an expert
Andrea Moreno, Chief Compliance Officer, Grupo Mieres Angola Lda

12:30 Announcement of best paper award

12:45 Closure

13:00 LUNCH AND NETWORKING